THU JUN 28 Alpin Hong

Unconventional classical pianist Alpin Hong executes his repertoire from Rachmaninoff to Gershwin like a rock star. With youthful vivacity, Alpin translates the history, importance and validity of the classical piano arising from a deep understanding and love of his art. Armed with a Masters from the Julliard School of Music, Alpin flaunts technical prowess on even the most strenuous pieces, wooing fans with his stunning technique, emotional range and rare humor. His excitement is contagious. Alpin makes classical music hip. In this community collaborative concert, Alpin is accompanied by a performance from the Crested Butte School of Dance.

10:00 a.m. Special Children's Performance. Free.

7:00 p.m. Ticketed Performance. Adult: $25.

18 & under: $15

SAT JUN 23 Patty Larkin

Patty Larkin redefines the boundaries of folk-urban pop music with her inventive guitar wizardry and uncompromising vocals and lyrics. Hers are richly contemplative tracks about solitude and togetherness, open vistas and spiritual quests. Her alto voice can be breathy and confiding, or tinged with the blues, delicate yet expressive. She is not only a virtuoso slide guitarist, but an imaginative and versatile vocalist, and riveting performer. 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 6/16: $20. Regular: $25

SAT JUN 30 The Artisanals

Indie rock group The Artisanals are chock full of Charleston, South Carolina's latest music luminaries with sonic influences ranging from the dream-pop work of George Harrison to the stone-cold radio hits of bands like the Killers. Sporting 70's style harmonies and songs that run stylistically from that of Tom Petty to Bruce Springsteen, The Artisanals touch on everything from anthemic choruses to acoustic interludes. 3:00 p.m. Free

The Artisanals show is in conjunction with the inaugural CB Chalk Walk — a temporary community public art-making event with the Art Studio of the Center for the Arts. Please see the Art Studio pages in this program for more information.

THU JUL 5 Travis Meadows

This outdoor concert in the wide-open meadows of a local ranch features a Nashville underground musician, true artist and unforgettable performer. Travis raises chills with his raspy-voiced storytelling and heartrending confessionals. His rawness rises up from a deep well of honesty, chiseled through pain and loss, death and rebirth. Travis' songs have been recorded by country music icons and rockers alike such as Lynyrd Skynyrd, Hank Williams Jr. and Wynonna Judd. Warming up the crowd for Travis are Missy Chamberland, Evelyn Roper, Chris Coady and Bill Dowell. Cash bar available.

7:00 p.m. $20

VIP tickets through Tour de Forks are $225. See the Culinary & Vintner Arts section of this program for more details.

FRI JUL 27 Josh Blue

The undeniably likeable comedian Josh Blue centers much of his self-deprecating act around having Cerebral Palsy, breaking down stereotypes of people with disabilities one laugh at a time. His stand-up routine is in a constant state of evolution and his off-the-cuff improvisational skills guarantee that no two shows are exactly alike. Josh exploded onto the national comedy scene when he won NBC's Last Comic Standing. Ages 18 and up.

8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 7/20: $20.

Regular: $25

SAT JUL 28 Otis Taylor Band

Bluesman Otis Taylor fearlessly and unapologetically breaches the hard topics of race relations and social injustices with vivid and poignant storytelling based in truth and history delivered with a poet's soul and a haunting voice. Accomplished in multiple instruments including guitar, banjo, harmonica and cello, his stark instrumentation and gut-wrenching delivery has riveted the blues world, raised a fair number of eyebrows, and won him an impressive bevy of awards. 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 7/21: $20.

Regular: $25

Robert Randolph & The Family Band

THU AUG 23 Virtuoso Robert Randolph's unprecedented prowess on the pedal steel guitar has Rolling Stone calling him one of the "100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time." The band's distinctive mix of rock, funk, and rhythm & blues has earned them a rapturous response from a fervent, international audience. Their live shows explode with joy, freedom and energy, with Robert mastering the most complex instrument in the world and emitting a unique voice that is equal parts street-corner church and Bonnaroo. Your body will demand its dancing rights. 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 8/16: $40. Regular: $45

SAT AUG 11 Amy Speace & Her Nashville Friends:
An Evening in the Round

THU AUG 30
 Amy Helm

SAT AUG 5 Turkuaz

The Brooklyn-based nine-piece powerhouse, Turkuaz, delivers immensely danceable horn-filled soul-funk incorporating elements of R & B, psychedelic pop, gospel, Afro-pop, new wave and classic rock. Charismatically dressed in bright outfits that are as colorful as their expressive voice, and with choreographed dance moves, the band puts on a bombastic performance that rides like a summer carnival on a Saturday night. At the Big Mine Ice Arena. 7:30 p.m. Early Bird through 7/31: $35. Regular: $40

Amy Speace & Her Nashville Friends: An Evening in the Round

SAT AUG 11 A timeless and classic folk singer, Amy Speace applies her rich and lovely voice to luminously smart songs. In this special benefit concert for the Center, Amy comes together with Nashville musical colleagues the Wild Ponies and Kira Small for an Evening in the Round of soaring vocals tinged with gospel, soul and country. Concert Only: 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 8/4: $25. Regular: $30

The VIP Experience: Grab this rare opportunity to dine and interact with the musicians in this pre-concert get together. Held in a stunning local home with food provided by a celebrity chef, this charmed evening continues with participants heading to the Center for the Arts for the capstone concert. 5:30 p.m. Early Bird through 8/4: $150. Regular: $175

THU AUG 30 Amy Helm

Powerfully soulful, Amy Helm (daughter of musical icon Levon Helm of The Band) is blessed with a deeply expressive voice and an uncanny songwriting skill that instinctively draws upon a deep well of American musical traditions including blues, gospel, rock, country and folk. Her flexibility ranges from smoldering ballads, to heartfelt gospel urgency, to songs that can be just as stark and haunting as others can be hushed, lilting and meditative. 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 8/23: $20. Regular: $25

SUN SEP 2 MarchFourth

Come on a joy-inducing, booty-shaking, soul-stirring journey with this big band vaudeville extravaganza. The sonic explosion is delivered with brassy horns, rock-n-roll guitar, groovy electric bass and an astoundingly diverse percussion section. Over 20 traveling musicians and artisans seductively weave the colorful kaleidoscope of dancing beauties, high-stepping stilt walkers and swirling hula hoopers, whipping audiences into a celebratory frenzy with an over-the-top, multi-faceted cinematic spectacle. 8:00 p.m. Early Bird through 8/26: $35. Regular: $40

THU SEP 6 Nicolò Spera

Virtuoso classical guitarist Nicolò Spera brings a unique synthesis of European and American traditions together in a solo concert of classical and contemporary works. Originally from Italy, and one of the preeminent classical guitarists in America, Nicolò is one of the few guitarists in the world to perform on both six-string and ten-string guitars, as well as on theorbo. Presented in conjunction with the New Western Slope Chamber Music Series. 7:00 p.m. Adults: $15. Students: $5. CBCS Students: Free

Nicolò Spera Artist in Residency

WED SEP 5 Master Class Receive private instruction in classical guitar technique in a group setting with Q&A to follow. All ages and abilities welcome. The public is also invited to come and listen as an auditor. 7:00 – 9:30 p.m. Students: $25. Auditors: $10.

Jason Boland & The Stragglers

MON JUL 23 Red dirt country heroes Jason Boland and the Stragglers pen honky-tonk tunes as whip-smart as they are body-moving. His burnished, evocative baritone and pensive writing style finds roots in the rusted Oklahoma traditions of his native homeland's greatest son — Woody Guthrie. These are songs of dark clouds and silver linings, all assembled in the rough-hewn manner selling over a half million records. Food: The Divvy & The Painted Pony

MON JUN 18 101st Army Concert Band The 101st Army Concert Band is the largest ensemble of the 101st Army Band of the Colorado National Guard. Extremely versatile, be ready to enjoy everything from large-scale formal concert band pieces to classical to patriotic music and marches. Food: Nomadic Pie Co.

MON JUN 25 The Rad Trads

With a decidedly New Orleans sound, it's not a surprise this New York City based group came together from a love of the classics like The Band, Allen Toussaint and Dr. John. Featuring three powerful horns, a driving rhythm section, and three captivating lead vocalists, their soulful playlist displays influences from early jazz to New Orleans brass band, R&B, the Chicago and Delta blues, and rock & roll. Food: Nomadic Pie Co.

MON JUL 2 WE HAVE A SUPER SPECIAL, YET SUPER SECRET, ARTIST LINED UP!

Stay tuned for our announcement on June 11, but go ahead and mark your calendars now!

MON JUL 9 The Black Lilies The Black Lilies flaunt a rootsy flair, mixing folk, honky-tonk country, soul, blues, gospel and rump-shaking Southern rock into a winsome hybrid traditional enough to appeal to an Opry crowd and expansive enough to ensnare a broader audience. With one foot planted firmly in Appalachian music culture, their songs are earthy and gritty with a spirit that seems to have been carved out of the planks of an abandoned backwoods cabin.

Food: Delish

MON JUL 16 Dragondeer Denver-based blues quartet Dragondeer mixes a hybrid of Mississippi Delta blues with 1960's psychedelic rock, blistering harmonica and raw pedal steel. They switch gears between sinister, ethereal, funky and down home that both nods to the past and eschews fears of including modern inspirations with influences from Sonny Boy Williamson and Taj Mahal to the Grateful Dead. Food: Delish

MON JUL 30 Paa Kow & His Afro-Fusion Orchestra

A high-energy, afro-fusion cultural immersion, Paa Kow and his Afro-Fusion Orchestra boldly explore the music of the African Diaspora by melding Ghanaian highlife with elements of jazz, funk and African pop. Originally from Ghana, West Africa, Paa Kow is recognized as one of the most remarkable drumset players in Africa, Europe and America. Food: The Rotary Club

MON AUG 6 Shane Smith & The Saints

Singer-songwriter Shane Smith leads this hard-edged, Austin-based Americana quintet, robust with powerful vocals exerting a cappella and four-part harmonies, vivid lyrics, and thumping four-beat drums. Aggressive in their delivery, their creative roots music carries a raw country edge that makes the barn-burner feel like arson. Food: The Divvy

MON AUG 13 Lipbone Redding & The Mesa Groove Unit

A one-man orchestra with no electronic effects or loop pedal, Lipbone Redding uses his lips as a vibrating trombone, combining his signature sound with throat singing, bass and beat-boxing, weaving his stories with funky rhythms, catchy melodies, brash humor, soulful singing, and inventive guitar playing. Food: Burnell's Farmhouse Eatery

MON AUG 20 The Tin Men

New Orleans' Tin Men are America's premier sousaphone, washboard and guitar trio. Together they explore a truly eclectic array of North American pop from jug band, swing jazz and New Orleans R&B to Motown, easy listening, heavy metal and beyond. Offbeat Magazine describes them as "One of the most interesting bands to emerge from New Orleans in years." At Red Mountain Park in Crested Butte South.

FEATURING THE WORK OF FIVE OF OUR OUTSTANDING workshop instructors, downtown shoppers will fall in love with the variety of giftable, one-of-a-kind items handcrafted by this talented group.

Featured Artists

Judith Cassel-Mamet

Judith Cassel-Mamet is a mixed media artist and educator, Judith offers intimate collages inspired by art journal pages and this magnificent mountain environment. Her interplay of text, texture and color create rich and luscious layers.

Suzanne Pierson

Suzanne Pierson makes unique and treasured watercolors of memorable adventures in the mountain paradise of Crested Butte — brilliant with wildflowers and forests printed on easy to pack, ready to hang metal prints.

Laura Elm

Laura Elm spontaneously integrates words and creatures onto finely crafted studio ceramics and throughout the many facets of her drawings and paintings. Strikingly original images with lush, verdant pattern and repetition allow the meditative qualities of color and form to evolve with each piece.

Peggy Stenmark

Peggy Stenmark works in watercolors and acrylics — she paints the scenes of Crested Butte that are often overlooked by others, finding beauty in unusual places. Using strong design and rich color, Peggy hopes to inspire people to take a closer look at their surroundings.

Mary Tuck

Mary Tuck "Eclectic creativity is the breath of life!" exclaims Mary. Mary works in all mediums — acrylics, watercolor and Precious Metal Clay being some of her favorites. Here she shows handmade jewelry, small acrylic paintings and silk scarves.

Art enables us to find ourselves and lose ourselves at the same time.

wine & food festival

CENTER FOR THE ARTS
Crested Butte

THE CRESTED BUTTE WINE & FOOD FESTIVAL couples world-class national, regional and local chefs with well-known and boutique wineries in an exciting and informative tasting and dining five-day extravaganza. Wine enthusiasts adventure into exquisitely prepared lunches and dinners paired with sommelier presented wines; horseback riding and foraging excursions; and tastings on the wild side from chocolate and spirits to bourbon and barbeque.

Saturday's signature Grand Tasting culminates in over 500 wines and the chance to order your favorites on the spot. Win large format, small batch and rare bottles from the unique Wine Auction. The experience is completed with live music, artful appetizers and unique vendors.

Oenophiles, connoisseurs, foodies or folks who just like food and wine — the festival has something for everyone.
